Winds Threaten Forest Fires

BATESVILLE, Ark. (AP)—High winds today still threatened to fan fires that razed a 3,200-acre tract near Batesville, but foresters said they believed they could keep the fire under control.

About 150 volunteers have been fighting the fire since Monday. Much of the land burned belongs to the State Game and Fish Commission.

Foresters said winds were "pretty high" for fire fighting but unless the wind rises and the flames jump fire lanes, they should not damage additional land.

2 Killed in Wreck on 67 in Miller Co.

TEXARKANA (AP)—Two men were killed, one instantly when their car hit a bridge guard rail overturned and burst into flames on Highway 67 about eight miles north of Texarkana late Wednesday night.

Miller County sheriff's deputies said a man, tentatively identified as Marvin L. Myhand of North Little Rock, died in the flaming automobile.

A second, unidentified man, died in a Texarkana hospital several hours later. He was thrown from the car.

Deputy Sheriff Jim Waggoner said the automobile skidded 400 feet after it hit the bridge.

Identification of Myhand, he said, was made through a name in a charred wallet.

The son, a junior high school student, got a .16 gauge shotgun and shot his father in the stomach, Waggoner said.

Waggoner quoted the boy as saying, "I'm not sorry about the shooting. I would do it again."

Philippine President Dies at 86

By HENRY HARTZENBUSCH
MANILA (AP)—Sergio Osmena, 83, president of the Philippine Commonwealth after World War II, died today of heart and kidney ailments.

Osmena died in the Veterans Memorial Hospital in Manila. He had been ailing for months and was transferred from his home in Cebu recently when his condition grew grave.

A leader in Philippine politics for nearly 40 years, he became vice president when the commonwealth was born Nov. 15, 1935, and succeeded to the presidency in exile in Washington Aug. 1, 1944, a few hours after his long time associate and sometime rival, President Manuel L. Quezon, died of tuberculosis.

A few months later Osmena landed with Gen. Douglas MacArthur on Leyte at the start of the Philippines' liberation. Osmena took over direction of the monumental task of restoring order, cleaning up the widespread destruction of the war, and dealing with those Filipinos who had collaborated with the Japanese during the occupation.

With independence in the offing, he became a candidate for the presidency in the April, 1946, election. Despite dissension within his party and public impatience at the slow pace of recovery from the war, he stayed at his desk and refused to campaign. The voters rejected Osmena and chose Manuel Roxas to be the first president of the new republic.

After his defeat Osmena retired from active politics.

He and MacArthur had a poignant reunion—their first in 15 years—last July when the general made his farewell tour of the islands. Osmena was too sick even to go to the Cebu harbor to greet his wartime comrade, and MacArthur called at his home.

The prosecution charged she and other leaders are trying to mastermind a $478,000 robbery plan to greet Kennedy when he arrives on the 20th, the White House announcement said.

U.S. Flatly Against Admitting Red China to the UN, JFK Says

West Teaming to Blast Red Test Before UN

By TOM HOGE
UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The United States and its Western Allies mobilized today for an assault on the Soviet plan to annex its nuclear weapon test series with a 50-megaton blast.

The forum was the General Assembly's top Political Committee, which begins debate on proposals for a nuclear test explosion moratorium after defeating Soviet efforts to have the test issue blanketed into the general disarmament discussion later.

The committee debate was expected to bring repeated calls for Moscow to call off the superbomb explosion. The United States and its Allies hoped the debate would marshal sufficient antilest opinion to force the Russians to reconsider.

Sweden already has indicated the mounting concern among U.N. members over the Soviet announcement by appealing to the Kremlin to reverse its decision to touch off the giant bomb before the end of the month.

The 101-nation committee wound up two weeks of wrangling over priority Wednesday night with two rounds of balloting that signified defeats for the Soviet Union.

The committee voted 83-0 with 4 abstentions to list as its first item India's proposal for a new voluntary moratorium on nuclear testing. The Soviet bloc and Cuba cast the negative votes.

The committee then approved a U.S. move to debate along with the Indian plan a U.S.-British resolution calling for a treaty to end tests under effective international control.

This vote was 54-13 with 31 abstentions. The Soviet bloc, Cuba, Mali, India and Senegal voted no. Most of the abstentions came from nations that took part in the recent Belgrade conference of so-called nonaligned nations.

Kaganovich, right-hand man of Stalin's control commission which oversaw the bloody purges of the 1930s, built the Moscow subway and much of the Soviet railway system and wiped out separatism in the postwar Ukraine.

Premier Khrushchev himself took the lead in launching a new attack on the so-called anti-party group in his speech to the congress on Tuesday.

Why the congress is devoting so much time to raking over its skeletons puzzled diplomats. One explanation was that the party leaders left obligated to report to the congress how the campaign against the Stalinist cult of the individual was coming on.

Others suspected that there were still supporters of the ousted Stalinists in the party here—and not only in Albania—and that renewed public denunciations were considered necessary.

Cities Can't Match Firemen's Fund

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—There is no authority for municipalities to match firemen's contributions to a retirement fund, the attorney general's office has ruled.

City Attorney John F. Stroud of Texarkana asked for the ruling after the city's Firemen's Pension Board suggested a three per cent firemen's pay deduction, matched by a like amount of city revenues.

The law limits a municipal contribution to such a retirement fund to one mill per tax dollar, Dennis W. Horton, assistant attorney general ruled.

New Tax Levied on Gas, Oil

EL DORADO, Ark. (AP)—The Arkansas Oil and Gas Commission, needing money to finance its operations, levied a half-mill tax Wednesday on each 1,000 cubic feet of gas produced in the state.

The tax, authorized in 1939, has never been levied. Until now the commission has financed itself with a 4 mill tax on each barrel of crude oil.

The commission cited increased operating expenses as reason for the new tax.

In other action Wednesday, the commission increased the daily oil production allowable from 33,200 to 35,200 barrels during the next quarter.

2-Job Worker Not Robbing Fellow Man

By NORMAN WALKER

WASHINGTON (AP)—Workers holding down several jobs are not robbing fellow workers of a chance to earn a living, the Labor Department suggested today. It made public a new survey on the prevalence and characteristics of dual jobholding—or moonlighting as it is commonly called.

Over three million persons, or 4.8 per cent of all those employed in the country held more than one job when the survey was taken in December, 1960. This means nearly one out of 20 held second jobs.

Secretary of Labor Arthur J. Goldberg said, however, that the number and proportion of dual jobholders has not been increasing in recent years. Also, it was found for the first time, he said, that moonlighting is a misnomer.

More of the dual jobholders, contrary to popular belief, work on their extra jobs during day, light hours rather than at night.

Only 34 per cent of the dual jobholders were reported as working mostly at night on their extra job; 42 per cent worked mostly during weekday working hours; and 24 per cent primarily on weekends.

Goldberg had some comments on the agitation from jobless workers during periods of heavy unemployment of "there oughta be a law" banning anyone from holding more than a single job.

"The results of this survey give little support," the secretary said, "to the notion that the unemployment problem could be solved by prohibiting extra jobholding."

"The hours worked on the second jobs are usually very short, and a great many of these jobs—for example those in farming and the professions—would be unsuited to the unemployed or of little interest to them."

Only about 180,000 of the three million dual jobholders worked full time on both jobs. Typically, the total hours worked by the multiple jobholder added up to 50 on both jobs, with 11 hours devoted to the extra job.

Moscow Note on Air Lanes Unacceptable

By LEWIS GULICK

WASHINGTON (AP)—Diplomatic sources said today Moscow has sent a note renewing a Soviet stand on Berlin air corridors that is unacceptable to the West.

The text of the Soviet note, delivered to the American, British and French embassies in Moscow, was not immediately available here.

Informants said the Soviet communication replied to Sept. 3 Western notes warning the Kremlin that any interference with the air traffic linking Communist-encircled West Berlin with West Germany would be "aggressive action."

Moscow was said to have declared again its view that the air corridors are only supposed to be used for supplying the Western garrisons in Berlin. The Western powers regard the air lanes as a vital lifeline for the city, to be used for general civilian purposes and otherwise without Red interference.

The Soviet note was not regarded as a good omen in the simmering German dispute about which Secretary of State Dean Rusk spoke at a news conference Wednesday. Rusk, giving the first public U.S. government assessment of Soviet Premier Khrushchev's speech to the Communist party congress in Moscow, said he could pass preliminary judgment because the full text of the long Khrushchev address is still not available here. He declined to say whether it makes the prospects for peace better or worse.

Khrushchev's relaxation of his Dec. 31 deadline for his peace treaty with Communist East Germany, Rusk said, "may serve to reduce tension somewhat."

But Khrushchev's "general observations about the German and Berlin problems show little if any change from what has been said before," Rusk added.

The secretary of state made a point of playing down the rift among the Allies in their approach to negotiating with the Soviet Union on the German question. And in doing this, in effect, he lectured against the French view that intensive Western preparations now for East-West negotiations would appear to the Kremlin as a sign of Western weakness.

Instead, Rusk served notice that the United States intends to continue its exploratory talks with Moscow to see whether there are possible grounds for negotiations. Paris has been cool to these talks.

Yogi Emerges From Trance

NEW DELHI (AP)—A 40-year-old yogi emerged from a trance today after being buried alive nine days to pray for world peace.

Swami Ramma, was removed from his five-foot-deep pit and quickly recovered consciousness. He told newsmen he is convinced that the chances for world peace now are brighter.

But he warned of evil portents in the resumption of nuclear tests and the Hindu-Muslim rioting in India.

Swami said he was particularly perturbed by the evil conjunction of nine stars next February. This could spell disaster for the universe, he claimed.

Nobel Prize to Dr. Georg von Kekesy

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (AP)—The 1961 Nobel Prize for medicine was awarded today to Dr. Georg von Kekesy, Hungarian-born ear specialist now working in the United States.

The prize amounts to 250,200 Swedish crowns—$48,300.

Von Kekesy, now working at Harvard University in Cambridge, Mass., was awarded the prize for "his discoveries concerning the physical mechanisms of stimulation within the cochlea," said the official citation from the awarding body. The cochlea is a division of the labyrinth of the ear.

The award—first of this year's series of Nobel prizes—was given after a three-hour session of the Board of Professors at the Royal Caroline Institute, which makes the choice.

Von Kekesy started his career in Hungary as an engineer specializing in communication techniques and went on to physiological acoustics. Research in the field ultimately became his main interest and by the end of the 1920s he had made the discovery for which he now receives the Nobel Prize.

At the end of the war he moved to Stockholm and from there to Harvard.

From a technical point of view, Von Kekesy, 62, set out to prove his theories in a series of remarkable experiments, among others on the ear of a corpse.

The winner of the prize for literature will be selected by the Royal Swedish Academy of Letters a week from today. The Academy of Science, are expected Nov. 2.

The fifth prize, for peace, is given by the Prize Committee of the Norwegian Parliament.

The laureates will receive their diplomas, medals and checks from the hands of King Gustaf VI Adolf of Sweden at traditional ceremonies at the Stockholm Concert Hall on Dec. 10.

Red China Hails Albania Friends

TOKYO (AP)—The Chinese Communists today distributed a speech hailing their "unbreakable" friendship for Albania less than 24 hours after Soviet Premier Khrushchev had criticized the little east European nation for its espousal of Stalinism.

The speech Monday by Mrs. Yang Yun-yu, Chinese delegate to the fifth Congress of the Women's Union of Albania in Tirana, declared: "The friendship between the Chinese and Albanian peoples based on the principles of Marxism-Leninism and proletarian internationalism is unbreakable and no force can destroy it."

The official New China News Agency and Peiping Radio, either by design or because of a communications delay, reported the speech only today.

Park Funds May Be Reduced

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Gov. Orval E. Faubus said today that allocation of funds for additional construction at present state parks may have to be reduced to help out new parks.

The Parks and Publicity Commission recently adopted a plan for spending over half the $900,000 appropriated at a special legislative session on existing parks.

"We may have to cut down on some things," Faubus said. "I don't think that all of the funds should go to presently-established parks. The legislature has authorized some new ones and some of the funds will have to be used to at least start these."

The appropriation measure specified that the governor would have final authority on how the money was spent.

Faubus made his comments at a news conference shortly before a scheduled meeting with two commission members.

Square Dancers to Meet in L. R.

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—More than three thousand square dancers for Arkansas and five neighboring states will "doe-see-doe" into Little Rock Friday and Saturday for the 12th annual Arkansas Square Dance Festival.

Activities will include a dance at the Little Rock Air Force Base Friday night, lectures on square dance calling, lessons for beginners and another dance Saturday night at Robinson Auditorium.

Hijacker of Airliner Is Convicted

EL PASO, Tex. (AP)—An all-male jury took only 22 minutes Wednesday to convict Leon Bearden, 38, of hijacking a continental airlines jet airliner over New Mexico Aug. 3.

Bearden was found guilty of kidnapping, obstruction of interstate commerce, and violating the Federal Motor Vehicle Theft Act.

Bearden and his son, Cody, 16, both of Coolidge, Ariz., await sentencing.

Attorneys told jurors the Bearden trial was the first of its kind. Cody Bearden went on trial with his father but Monday pleaded guilty under the Juvenile Corrections Act to transporting a stolen vehicle across a state line.

U.S. Dist. Judge R. E. Thomas said he would wait on pre-sentencing reports on both father and son before setting a sentencing date.

Defense attorney Robert S. Pine asks for a verdict of innocent by reason of insanity for Leon Bearden.

As an example, Pine pointed to Bearden's withholding until his trial the claim that government intelligence agents were responsible for the hijacking.

Bearden testified Tuesday that U.S. intelligence agents had threatened to put him and his wife, Mary Ruth, 34, in prison if the hijacking wasn't carried out.

Prosecutor Lawrence Fuller told the jury, "Bearden apparently went to great lengths to cook up the cloak and dagger story."

"Bearden is crazy like a fox," he added. "It took a smart man to realize the possibilities of shoplifting a $5.3-million item."

Court sources said they expect Bearden to appeal in his own behalf. He has 10 days in which to file the motion.

The prosecution asked life imprisonment for Leon. Cody cannot be confined beyond his 21st birthday, Nov. 13, 1965.

The Bearden seized control by pistol point of the 707 jet airliner over Columbus, N.M., on a flight from Phoenix to El Paso.

Leon Bearden ordered the pilot to head for Cuba, but the pilot talked him into allowing a landing at El Paso for fuel.

At El Paso, the pair held the 55 crewmen and four of the plane's passengers hostage. Federal officers surrounded the plane.

The tense standoff lasted several hours. The Bearden ordered the pilot to take off, but officers punctured the plane's tires with machine-gun fire. The Bearden then were overpowered.

U. S. Troops Continue Maneuvers

By JOHN FIEHN

BERLIN (AP)—U. S. troops crossed the River Havel in helicopters and amphibious vehicles at daybreak today in a mock attack during the second day of their fall maneuvers.

Nearly half the 6,500-man U.S. garrison in West Berlin is in the Grunewald Forest to test their combat readiness.

Despite being confined to the city limits—all the surrounding territory is sealed off by the Communists—the Army managed to provide variety.

The exercise, "Ever Ready II," is under the direction of Brig. Gen. Frederick O. Hartel, commander in Berlin, and a staff of umpires. Emphasis is placed on squad and platoon tactics in attack and defense.

The sound of shots and the crash of breaking glass marked another restive night along the Communist-built wall dividing the tense city.

West Berlin police told of the shooting and of spotting flares sent aloft in the East Berlin zone across the River Spree from the U.S. sector but could not see the targets. It was assumed that the East German police were hunting would-be escapees.

An East German railroad policeman threw stones at West Berliners across the barricade in the same district but hurt nobody. Police reported similar rock-throwing incidents in the French sector. Stones from the East zone smashed nine windows in apartments in the West.

How to Win Over Girl's Mother

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: I've been dating a girl for about a year, but because her mother dislikes me, we see each other only once a week. Marian is 23, a brilliant person, but completely under her mother's thumb. Whenever I call, her mother makes sarcastic remarks. I'll admit life hasn't been too pleasant for the mother; her husband died tragically a few years ago, and her other child is a handicapped boy who really needs all his mother's care. I do think Marian is entitled to some freedom, however. Can you suggest anything? —George.

Dear George: You might try for a better understanding with the woman you so lightly brand as a tyrant. With nothing left to cling to except her daughter, and a past and present filled with tragedy and unhappiness, it's not difficult to see why she considers you as an intruder bent only on taking her daughter away. You and Marian can use some of your vaunted intelligence to improve the situation.

Stop resenting the mother's possessiveness; exert your efforts, instead, towards removing its cause. Marian can begin by putting the situation squarely up to her mother, explaining how she feels about you, and giving assurance (backed up by you), that marriage will not mean complete detachment from her family.

While Marian won't be with her mother as much as she is now, she will, at least, be at hand to give any necessary help, such as caring for the handicapped child, so the mother can get out occasionally, and will be available always as a source of comfort. The all-pervading feeling of fear and anxiety that motivates the mother's heavy hold on Marian can be alleviated, and perhaps ended, with Godliness in the home. People with faith know where to find the confidence they need. Your case isn't hopeless, but you will have to exercise patience and consideration in solve it.

Send your problem to Helen Worden Erskine. Be sure to enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope and address her care of this newspaper. Helpful letters available. Write for "A Happy Marriage."

Injuries Are Hurting the Razorbacks

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — The Arkansas Razorbacks wind up practice for the Texas game today and Coach Frank Broyles isn't satisfied with the progress they've made.

Broyles has worked the Hogs hard on defense against Texas' speedy, aggressive ground game.

"We just don't know how to stop a real good running game," Broyles said after the training session, using Texas players, whipped through the varsity line in a dummy scrimmage Wednesday.

Broyles said the Razorbacks had spent a great deal of time working on pass defense before the Texas Christian and Baylor games and they did not seem to be adjusting to defense against rushing.

Texas, only undefeated team in the Southwest Conference, invades Razorback Stadium Saturday for a game that will put the winner atop the league standings, at least for a week.

Guards Dean Garrett and Tommy Brasher, hurt in the Baylor fray, remained on the injured list Wednesday and they are doubtful starters against Texas.

Tackle Jerry Mazzanti sprained an ankle in Wednesday's session. Trainer Bill Ferrell said he wouldn't know until today whether Mazzanti will be able to play.

Broyles moved Tommy Polk up to fill Garrett's linebacking spot on the first unit and installed Jerry Linberger and Jerry Moore in the jobs on the second unit.

Fullbacks in Pro Ranks Hold Places

NEW YORK (AP)—Jim Taylor and Paul Hornung of Green Bay and Milt Plum of the Cleveland Browns held their places atop the National Football League's principal offense tabulations last week. But the glamour boy of ground-gaining was rookie Bill Killebrew of the San Francisco 49ers.

Killebrew, national college leader in total offense last season and most valuable player in the All-Star game at Chicago last summer, found himself as a pro runner when he was installed as one of the three rotating quarterbacks in San Francisco's shotgun offense.

In his last three games, Killebrew has run for 334 yards and has scored eight touchdowns. Latest NFL individual offense figures show him as the No. 4 rusher with 356 yards on 59 carries and tied with Baltimore's Lenny Moore for second in scoring with 48 points. He also has completed 11 of 22 passes for 172 yards.

Green Bay's Taylor also scored four touchdowns in the Packers' rout of Cleveland and ran for 158 yards to improve his lead over Jimmy Brown of the Browns. Taylor has gained 510 yards in 81 attempts for a 6.4 yard average. Hornung picked up 13 points on a touchdown and seven conversions to run his point total to 77.

Plum, who took the passing lead the week before, maintained it in the intricate NFL computations by completing 17 of 26 for 193 yards.

Don Newcombe Is Released

SPOKANE, Wash. (AP) — Don Newcombe, former major league hurler who was 9-8 for the Spokane Indians of the Pacific Coast League last season, Wednesday was given his outright release.

General Manager Spencer Harris said the move was made to let the big right-hander "make the best possible deal for himself."

Newcombe was the National League's most valuable player in 1956.

Celtics Fume Over Incident in Kentucky

BOSTON (AP)—Boston Celtics owner Walter Brown was still steaming today about the incident at Lexington, Ky., Tuesday night when two of his Negro players were refused service at a hotel coffee shop.

"The Celtics will never play another exhibition game in the South or any other place where they might be embarrassed," Brown said. "I didn't want to go down there this time. I had promised that after an unpleasant incident at Charlotte, N.C., previously when the boys were embarrassed."

"I'm not so hungry for money that I'd arrange games where my players might be embarrassed. Never again."

Celtics player Frank Ramsey, who played at the University of Kentucky in Lexington, apologized for the hotel employee who refused to serve Sam Jones and Tom Sanders.

Jones and Sanders told teammates Bill Russell, K.C. Jones and Al Butler about the refusal of service and all five—plus St. Louis Hawks players Woody Sauldsberry and Cleo Hill—returned to their homes before the exhibition game. All are Negroes.

Thinks Hogs Will Keep Going Great

By WICK TEMPLE

Associated Press Sports Writer

It's ironic that what probably will be the two best football games in Arkansas this season fall on the same day. Happily, many fans will be able to see both.

Arkansas faces Texas at Fayetteville Saturday afternoon in a pivotal Southwest Conference game. Saturday night, State Teachers and Arkansas Tech tangle in Russellville in the game that probably will decide the Arkansas Intercollegiate Conference championship.

We picked the Razorbacks against Baylor last week and, on an upset basis, we're trying it again against Texas. The Longhorns haven't played anyone of Arkansas' caliber and the Razorbacks may have the momentum to carry them through.

The drawbacks are several bruises on the Razorback first unit and the fact that the Steers know what kind of a trap they're walking into. Foul weather could hurt the Hogs as it did against Tulsa.

All the ifs aside, here's selecting Arkansas by 21-14.

And around the state:

State Teachers 14, Arkansas Tech 13. Teachers has been a little more consistent and obviously was looking toward Tech in the first half of last week's Harding game. Tech beat Southern State by only 6-2 last time out, and that factor alone is basis for favorite's role for ASTC.

Rebels Set Sights on Tulane

By JACK CLARY

Associated Press Sports Writer

Mississippi's football team has two objectives this weekend at Tulane, and, not necessarily in order of importance.

They are: Get back the No. 1 spot among the college football teams in next week's Associated Press poll, and beat the Green Wave, increasing their defeatless string to 20 games.

Despite a 47-7 victory over Houston last week, Ole Miss went from first to second, with Michigan State now No. 1.

The Rebels have put the mission in good hands—the offense and the defense. Both have been dynamic. The offense is ranked second nationally and the defense 10th. Tulane, which has lost three of four games, is not close to the top 10.

Doug Elmore is in charge of the offensive. He is successor to the graduated All-America quarterback Jake Gibbs, who has hardly been missed. Elmore has gained 559 yards in the Rebels' four victories, and has been handicapped by his team's greatness. He just hasn't been able to play for an extended period in any one game.

The defense is a team proposition. Ole Miss Coach John Vaught is blessed with enough manpower for three fine teams.

But still Mississippi ranks second to Michigan State, and all the statistics in the world don't mean a thing today to the Rebels.

They may mean more next week if objective No. 1 is accomplished.

Ole Miss is not above taking a helping hand from Notre Dame, which plays Michigan State this week. The Irish got a psychological lift Wednesday—if they needed one with five straight losses to the Spartans—when their practice field was invaded by 2,000 whooping students who staged a rare, impromptu demonstration.

Bill Schoonover, Syracuse's first string quarterback, was sidelined for Saturday's game against Penn State with a broken hand, joining varsity performer Dick Easterly, another halfback, on the sidelines along with a flock of second team performers.

Texas Christian worked its all-sophomore backfield of quarterback Gary Mills, halves Larry and Gary Thomas and fullback Tom Crutcher, along with injured quarterback Sonny Gibbs, in preparation for the Texas Tech game.

Fullback Bill Merline and end Hank Large of Princeton will be out of Saturday's game against Colgate with injuries while Cornell halfback Marcy Tino will miss the Big Red's homecoming contest against Yale after being sidelined with recurring knee trouble.

Naturalist Dr. Konrad Lorenz of Austria has reported that fish called cichlids seem to have a compulsion to attack during the breeding season. If no rival male is present, a cichlid will attack its own mate.

Conference Play Gets Into Full Swing

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Southwest Conference football play gets into full swing Saturday with all teams in loop competition but the big game will be Texas versus Arkansas.

Texas, with a 1-0 conference mark, is rated the No. 3 team in the nation and Arkansas, which has a 2-0 loop mark, is seeking its third straight championship.

The outcome of Saturday's game at Fayetteville will determine the top contender for the 1961 crown.

The Baylor Bears, whose championship hopes were dimmed when they were defeated by the Razorbacks in their conference opener, journey to Lubbock to tackle Texas Tech. The Red Raiders, battered by Texas A&M, showed surprising strength in blanketing Texas Christian last week.

Rice, a favorite in the loop race, will be host to Southern Methodist, which two weeks ago won its first game since 1959.

Texas Christian's Horned Frogs, already beaten by Arkansas and Tech, will be host to the Aggies, who have a 1-0 loop mark.

A sellout crowd of 31,000 is expected to be in the stands at Fayetteville for the week's stellar game. In 1959 Texas won by one point and last year the Razorbacks had a one-point margin to their victory.

Rice, victory over Florida last week, isn't expected to have much trouble polishing off Southern Methodist before an expected crowd of 40,000.

The high scoring Aggies—38 against Texas Tech and 55 against Trinity—are given the nod over battered Texas Christian through the Frogs are expected to provide stubborn resistance. A crowd of better than 40,000 is due for the Fort Worth game.

Despite Tech's sharp showing in downing TCU, Baylor is at least a two-touchdown favorite in the Lubbock game, expected to draw 30,000 fans.

One Dish Supper Specials That Cook Themselves

Dinners-in-a-dish are great flavorwise and time-wise! Make ten tasty... make ten easy with canned condensed soups!

Hearty and full of nourishing goodness, these one dish meals are especially appealing on chilly fall nights. Choose your favorite casserole dish or oven-proof skillet and start your evening meal.

Make browned tender cubes of beef in a tempting sauce of canned condensed beef broth, red wine, and seasonings. Then, after an hour's time, add potatoes and small white onions. To give you dinner-in-a-dish a distinctive touch, garnish with sautéed mushrooms and chopped parsley.

Just right for this homey main dish is a crisp cabbage slaw... dressed with a combination of sour cream and mayonnaise. For dessert... old fashioned goodness with a modern touch... baked frozen individual apple pies topped with brown sugar and chopped nuts.

Beef and Vegetable Casserole

1 large clove garlic, minced
1 teaspoon leaf thyme, crushed
2 medium potatoes, quartered
1/2 pound small white onions
2 pound mushrooms
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
Chopped parsley

In skillet, cook bacon until crisp; remove and crumble. Heat beef with flour; brown in bacon drippings. Add beef broth, wine, parsley, garlic, and thyme. Pour into a 2-quart casserole. Cover; bake in a moderate oven (350°) 1 hour. Add potatoes and onions. Cover; bake 1 hour more. Lightly brown mushrooms in butter. Garnish casserole with mushrooms, bacon, and a sprinkling of parsley. Makes 4 servings.

Bare Shoulder Dates Back to the Cave Man

By JEAN SPRAIN WILSON
Associated Press Fashion Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Cavemen started the style of leaving one shoulder bare. Jacqueline Kennedy okayed it by including a one-shoulder dinner gown in her state wardrobe.

Designer Rudi Gernreich made a good thing of it last year with his Tarzan-like bathing suits for women. Now he has designed an entire wardrobe for one-armed lady paperhangers and others who like one cold shoulder.

Suits, daytime dresses, cocktail dresses—with one sleeve cut short or off entirely and the other reaching the wrist — were introduced Monday to buyers here for the spring fashion market.

Because around the world was the California designers' theme, Oriental and Negro models joined the garment district regulars to pace the runway in gold Paisley print denim jacket suits; sun-dresses in such shocking color combinations as pink and brass; and flame red, skintight knit sailor suits designed to make Uncle Sam's boatboys blush the same hue.

Nevertheless, Gernreich also got plenty of inspiration from around the house. He borrowed red and blue checked table cloths for crisply tailored suits, sheath dresses and lounge pants. Possibly from bed-spreads came his inspiration for trapeze dresses decked with two and three-foot tiers of polka-dot ruffles.

For the first time Gernreich introduced bikini bathing suits for men. Otherwise sure to attract attention from the Legion of Decency, these are quickly covered with surf length boxers, or leg-covering skin diver suits reminiscent of the Gay Nineties.

Jessel Wants Commission From Army

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP)—George Jessel says he is trying to get a commission in the Army so he can tour the nation as an officer, preaching patriotism to young people.

The 63-year-old entertainer told an American Legion audience here Monday night that he has asked his old friend, Gen. Omar Bradley to start the wheels rolling toward getting Jessel in the Army.

"I deplore the lack of patriotism I've found among youngsters," he said. "I'm tired of meeting kids on the street who can sing all the TV commercials but can't say the pledge to the flag."

Jessel made a fortune in every medium from vaudeville to television, but he said he wants to give "the last years of my life to the service of my country."

He'll finish his current speaking and theatrical tour April 1. "But if the Army'll take me before that," he said, "they can have me."

After the speech to the Legion group, Jessel repeated the announcement unsmilingly to an audience at the club where he is appearing. "I want to travel from town to town and try to inspire the youth of this country," he said. "So they can appreciate its greatness, its opportunities and its freedom and liberty."

"I would particularly like to talk to the beatniks, and to the girls with unkempt hair and dirty ears, and let them look at pictures of the gallant WACs of the last two years."

He said he hopes the Army will give him a commission in public relations "and just tell me what to do." He said he might work through the American Legion.

Jessel said his current tour could be extended for another year. He said he didn't know exactly how much he was making, but conceded that the entertainment tour "could make me an awful lot of money."

"Some weeks I make $6,000," he said. "And some weeks I lose $8,000."

U of A Professor Writes Booklet

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP)—W. J. Baerg, a University of Arkansas entomologist, has written a booklet about scorpions, something in self defense.

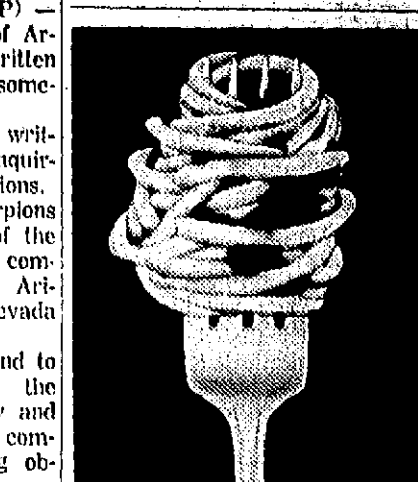

Baerg said the booklet was written in answer to frequent inquiries he receives about scorpions.

The study notes that scorpions are found in three-fourths of the United States but are most common in parts of Arkansas, Arizona, California, Utah, Nevada and Oklahoma.

"In Arkansas, scorpions tend to roam considerably during the spring months of April, May and early June. At that time they commonly enter houses," Baerg observed.

He added that is the time of year also when he received the inquiries.

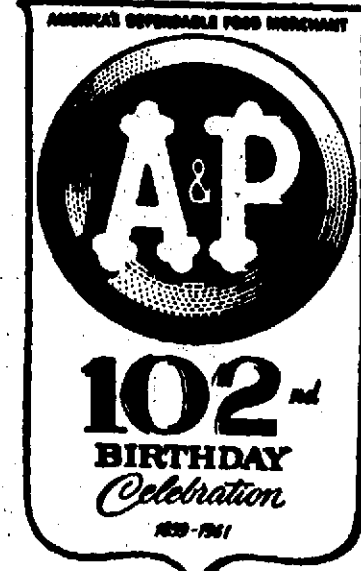

The majority of Peruvians live west of the country's mountains, along the long, narrow coastland.

Economical Recovery Is Healthy Now

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—Total industrial output has slipped a bit from its August peak.

But before you jump to the conclusion it's been a short recovery from the recession that bottomed out in February and March, remember: Most other segments of the economy have retained a reassuringly healthy glow.

And even in the industrial sector, the major setback can be traced to shutdowns in General Motors plants in September and in Ford plants this month, and to crippling of oil and chemical production by Hurricane Carla.

Also, latest reports show October sales of new cars picking up vigor. The auto industry hopes this means that production lost by labor troubles can be regained in coming weeks—and justified by good retail sales.

The output of most consumer goods, other than autos, gained during September. So did the production of many industrial materials, other than auto parts and oil hurt by labor troubles or weather mishaps.

The big question still is consumer buying, rather than industrial output which in the long run is largely tailored to the former. And spending holds high for most services and many consumer goods.

Retailers count on the Christmas spirit to pep up this spending in coming weeks. They also hope that the uncertainties born of the recession will fade in consumer minds, and that the Berlin crisis will ease and with it purse-tightening cautions.

Many economists think the public is likely to attach too much importance to the lasting effects of strikes on general business. They concede that the long strike in steel in 1959 caused major ups as well as downs in the business curve. In large part this was due to attempts by management in steel supplying and steel consuming industries to adjust before the strike, during it and after it. The poststrike adjustment in particular proved to be exaggerated.

"Usually the effects of work stoppages are shaken off rather quickly," say economists at the Morgan Guaranty Trust Co. of New York.

Predictions for total national output of goods and services seem to grow with each passing week. This may be due to the natural optimism of those in office. And partly it's due to the expectation that rising government spending will stimulate the economy. And a rising federal deficit could set the psychological stage for another inflationary boom.

But, largely the belief that the September easing in industrial output isn't too important in the long run is due to the knowledge that the economy spreads over too many fields these days for

Suggestions for New TV Programs

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—The trouble with television, they say, is that the producers are having so much trouble getting novel and bright plot ideas.

Well, I watch a lot of TV, and if they really want some fresh ideas never seen on the tube, I've made a list they are perfectly free to take.

A stirring, action packed saga of the Civil War, with both brothers fighting on the same side.

A series about a quack doctor, dedicated but only to making a big pile of money fast.

A suspense drama about a girl, all alone in a big house on a stormy night. She hears strange noises in the attic, and immediately leaves the house, gets in her car and drives to a police station.

The time for the big showdown comes. The marshal and the gun slinger in the black hat start walking towards each other down the dusty, deserted main street. And the marshal drops before he can even get his hand on his six shooter.

The pretty housewife in the situation comedy spends all day baking the banana cream pie for that dinner with the boss and his wife. And at dinner they all sit down and eat the pie.

The heroine in the daytime serial is sitting quietly in the living room when kindly Dr. John the family physician, drops in and asks her how she feels. She smiles brightly and responds: "Just dandy, doc, and I don't have a problem in the world."

China has one motor vehicle per 3,340 persons, while the U. S. has one for every 2.5 persons.

any one industry, or even any grouping of industries, to have the impact for betterment or detriment that once was the case.

If city folk go on spending for the things they need and want, if farmers turn the blessing of good harvests in most parts of the nation into steady or increased spending, the auto work stoppages and the ravages of Carla may quickly become past history—real-ty past.

U. S. Asks Reds Not to Shoot Bomb

By HARRY KELLY
WASHINGTON (AP) — The White House has asked the Soviet Union to reconsider its decision to explode a 50-megaton nuclear bomb, charging that the test would be unnecessary and could only serve some unconfessed political purpose.

It said the United States had the materials and know-how to produce bombs in the 50-100 megaton range—and higher—but that such weapons are not essential to U.S. military needs and that full-scale tests are not necessary to develop them.

A 130-word statement was handed to newsmen Tuesday night by press secretary Pierre Salinger, who said it should be attributed to the White House and not to President Kennedy personally.

The statement was the only official U.S. comment so far on Premier Khrushchev's announcement Tuesday that the Soviet Union would explode a 50-megaton weapon at the end of this month. A 50-megaton blast is equivalent to the force of 50 million tons of TNT and about 2,500 times more powerful than the U.S. atomic bomb dropped on Hiroshima.

U.S. strategists hoped the White House statement, citing the lack of military purpose for such a test, would rally world opinion against the Kremlin.

From a diplomatic standpoint, Khrushchev's Moscow speech was seen as combining the carrot on a stick technique with the flick of a whip—mixing the lure of negotiations over Berlin while brandishing a mammoth nuclear threat.

A task force of State Department experts—including the U.S. ambassador to Moscow, Llewellyn E. Thompson—gathered to scrutinize all available textual matter to weigh the significance of what Khrushchev said, and what he didn't say.

The State Department said there would be no official assessment of the speech until Secretary of State Dean Rusk holds his press conference late this afternoon.

U.S. officials, however, served any enthusiasm for the So-

Rep. Mills Could Be New Speaker

Arkansians in Washington
By GORDON BROWN

WASHINGTON (AP) — If Rep. Wilbur Mills, D-Ark., should be chosen speaker of the House of Representatives—which is possible, though not probable at this time—he would be the first Arkansian in the select circle of men who have ruled the House.

There have been 45 House speakers, plus three pro-tempore speakers, since the first Congress met in 1789. They have come from 20 states, Arkansas not among them.

Next to Rep. John W. McCormack, D-Mass., now Democratic leader and speaker pro tem, Mills is probably most prominently mentioned as a successor to Speaker Sam Rayburn, D-Tex., now ill with incurable cancer.

But most veteran Capitol Hill observers don't believe Mills time has arrived. They doubt the House would toss McCormack overboard in view of the fact he now is speaker pro tempore.

Mills, who for years has been regarded as a strong contender for the speakership in event of a vacancy, always has assessed his own chances as behind those of McCormack, long the Democratic leader of the House.

Speakers, of course, aren't necessarily chosen on the basis of past service. Frequently it has been a popularity contest. And certainly Mills is one of the more popular House members.

Oddly enough, there is no requirement that the speaker be a

Dry Weather Hurts Pastures

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Crop Reporting Service said today that dry weather in northeast, central and part of east central Arkansas is damaging pastures and late soybeans and causing winter grains to be seeded in dust.

The service said west and south Arkansas generally had an adequate moisture supply for pastures and winter grains.

The cotton, rice and crop harvest continued at a good rate, the service said in its weekly summary.

Slavs Don't Want U. S. Policy Change

By SPENCER DAVIS

WASHINGTON (AP) — Yugoslavia was reported today to have asked the United States if it is changing its policy toward the Communist country and expressed the hope that it would not.

Informants said the Belgrade note came in response to the outcry here over the U.S. sale to Yugoslavia of 130 surplus Sabre jet fighter planes.

Yugoslav diplomats, the informant said, fear a change in U.S. policy toward President Tito's government might put Yugoslavia in a diplomatic no-man's land between East and West.

State Department officials would not confirm receipt of the note.

Informants said that Tito's government had expressed the hope there will be no change in basic relations—including U.S. economic cooperation—between the two countries.

White House press secretary Pierre Salinger said Monday a current review of U.S.-Yugoslav relations "goes into all aspects of assistance to Yugoslavia."

The Tito regime recently asked the United States to consider selling to Yugoslavians some additional surplus agricultural commodities with payment to be in Yugoslav currency. To date the United States has not agreed to negotiate this request.

Further, U.S. officials said any new Yugoslav request for economic help would receive close examination, although the United States does not intend to stop any commitments now in the process of delivery.

It has been reported that President Kennedy was irked by Tito's stand at the Belgrade conference of 25 unaligned nations. Tito's speech at the conference tended to support Soviet policies.

Diplomatic sources said Kennedy had made known his views in a sharply worded memorandum handed to the Yugoslav leader by U.S. Ambassador George F. Kennan last month.

Belgrade replied in a memorandum stating that Yugoslavia's position had not changed. But this apparently failed to clear the atmosphere.

Suggests Food Pileup for Nuclear War

By FRANK CAREY

WASHINGTON (AP)—A California scientist suggests the United States build up a national food cache so that food enough for two years would be available within easy walking distance of every American in the event of nuclear war.

Dr. Perry R. Stout of the University of California, speaking Tuesday to a component institute of the National Research Council, said a $15-billion emergency food supply should be widely distributed.

Stout said: "It will not be too much to follow the Biblical admonishment that the seven lean years will follow the good. As with the ancient Egyptians, let us take 20 per cent of each year's crop and store it—assuming we can get agricultural production up to such a level."

He added: "In this age of nuclear weapons, the United States is perhaps the most vulnerable of the large nations because of the dependence of her agricultural complex upon industrially supplied fertilizers, fuels and machinery."

"Consequently, in case of large-scale nuclear combat with primary targets being our concentrated industrial establishments, agriculture, even though highly dispersed, will become paralyzed immediately."

The agricultural scientist said a "two year survival kit" of food would require: supplies of animal protein, dehydrated and compacted; carbohydrates and fats similarly treated; plus the vitamins necessary for adequate diets.

And, "as for our present surplus grains, they must be gotten out of the warehouses and converted to animal protein."

member of the House.

The House, if it chose, could name Harry Truman, Dwight Eisenhower or Joe Doe to the job. In fact, the suggestion has been heard around Capitol Hill that the House consider Truman.

However, in the 172 years of House history, no one ever has been chosen speaker who was not an elected member.

That Mills has considerable support for speaker is shown in a poll conducted recently by Roll Call, a weekly publication devoted to congressional doings.

Of 162 Democratic representatives who answered the poll, 65 rated McCormack as having the best chance of being the next speaker if Rayburn does not return. Mills was second with 27 votes. And a total of 34 Democrats voting named Mills the best qualified member for the job.

Incidentally, Republican members—who have nothing to say about which Democrat will get the job—favored Mills over McCormack 23 to 17. Democrats will still control the House next year and thus will name the speaker.

Mills, it might be said, is a victim of timing. If Rayburn could have remained as speaker for a few years more, Mills might well have become the number one choice to succeed him. McCormack now is nearly 70 and in a few years might be out of the running.

However, with little prospect that Rayburn will return next year—for the second session of the 86th Congress—and with McCormack already in the saddle, Mills "chances now would appear to be slim."

However, since the House can do as it pleases, Mills can't be written off entirely at this time. And certainly not in the years ahead, assuming Democrats keep control of the House. Mills, after all, is only 52 years old—young enough to await the next vacancy.

If McCormack becomes the next speaker, he would be the seventh from Massachusetts — considerably more than any other state. Kentucky and Virginia have had four speakers each, a few states three and the others one or two.

Wheat Deal With Slavs Is Shelved

By SPENCER DAVIS

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States has shelved at least temporarily a request by Yugoslavia to buy 500,000 tons of surplus American wheat.

State Department officials indicated this was an outgrowth of the displeasure of President Kennedy toward the Tito government because of pro-Soviet positions Yugoslavia took at the recent Belgrade conference of 25 unaligned nations.

Officials said U. S. Ambassador George S. Kennan had outlined the policy of the U. S. government toward Yugoslavia in a meeting last week with Yugoslav Vice President Mijalko Todorovic in Belgrade.

The policy in effect continues all present commitments by the United States for economic assistance but halts consideration of new programs.

Kennan gave this answer after having been asked orally by Todorovic to clarify U. S. policy toward Yugoslavia, officials said. Earlier it had been reported that Yugoslavia sought clarification through a formal note rather than in an oral statement.

Belgrade has been asking Washington to consider the new request for the 500,000 tons of wheat, but the controversy in the United States over the sale of surplus Sabre jet planes has cooled American officials toward

Deputy Court Clerk Dies

JONESBORO (AP)—Bess Mathes 75, former U. S. deputy federal court clerk for the Jonesboro Division for 37 years, died Tuesday night in Union City, Tenn.

She had been making her home with her daughter, Mrs. Arthur Thompson, in Union City for several months. She retired as deputy clerk on Oct. 31, 1960.

Services will be held at 2 p.m. Thursday at St. Marks Episcopal Church in Jonesboro.

Funeral for Song Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Funeral services will be held Thursday for the man who wrote two of the most widely known calypso songs—"Mary Ann" and "Rum and Coca Cola."

Lord Invader, born Rupert Grant in Port of Spain, Trinidad, died Sunday in Harlem Hospital after an illness of a month. He was 47.

The request, there already had been surprise at the position President Tito took at the Belgrade conference while professing to be unaligned.

Officials here noted that surplus U. S. grain had been sold to Yugoslavia in each of the last three years.

Washington agreed earlier this year to sell Belgrade $60 million worth of cotton, vegetable oil and surplus wheat. The 400,000 tons of wheat involved totaled about $28 million. This agreement is now being carried out.

Thinks U. S. People Has Lost Vigor

NEW YORK (AP)—One of the nation's best known touch football players kicked off Tuesday night on what he said was the American people's loss of vigor and stamina.

U. S. Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy's credentials for speaking on the subject got a boost from another well-known play-for-fun athlete. President Kennedy messaged the dinner at which his brother spoke: "I am delighted that you have invited the attorney general to represent our touch football team at tonight's dinner of champions. There is considerable truth in the rumor that—on the gridiron, at least—he is the team's principal signal caller."

The Diner of Champions marked the fifth anniversary of the formation of the "People to People" program initiated by Dwight D. Eisenhower when he was president.

Robert Kennedy told the gathering, which included a host of well-known sports personalities, that there has been a tendency in recent years in "our modern, complacent society" for too many to become spectators and not participants.

The dinner began the 1962 fund-raising drive of the "People to People" Sports Committee, which arranges trips of Little League baseball teams to the Far East, of American rugby teams to Britain, tennis stars to South America, and of chess teams to Europe.

Fights Obscenity in U. S. Mail

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Post Office Department said today its quiet campaign against obscenity in the mails has shown an increase in arrests and convictions so far this year.

Postmaster General J. Edward Day said the Postal Inspection Service had arrested 98 persons on charges of violating postal obscenity statutes through the third quarter of 1961, which ended Sept. 15.

This represents a 21 per cent increase over the same period last year, he said.

There were 69 convictions obtained as a result of postal investigations, an increase of 16.9 per cent over last year's total for the period.

Says Nixon Will Not Be in Race

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Republican National Chairman William E. Miller says former Vice President Richard M. Nixon definitely will not be a candidate for president in 1964 under any circumstances.

Miller, who is here to confer with party officials, said Monday night that he had talked with Nixon Saturday and that Nixon repeated his contention that he is out of the presidential picture in 1964.

Last month, when Nixon announced his intention to run for governor of California in 1962, he prefaced it by declaring he would not be the GOP presidential candidate in 1964.

Living Facts All Around Arkansas

Associated Press Staff Writer

A social Security card is something most of us take as a matter of course.

It's something we get when we're 16 years old (or later if we're lucky enough to avoid work longer) then we file it away until we change jobs or retire.

Practically everyone has one, so why would a newspaper run front page picture of a man getting his?

The explanation is simple. The man was Dr. John A. Trice, superintendent of school at Pine Bluff and former president of the Arkansas Education Association.

Trice got his first Social Security card recently after 40 years of earning a living as a teacher and school administrator.

The Pine Bluff Commercial ran the picture to point up the fact that Arkansas teachers now are covered by Social Security, as the result of a Sept. 20 referendum.

The Harrison Times, taking note of the controversy over distribution of a Razorback brand whisky suggests: "How about some Old Faubus, aged seven years?"

J.O. Porter of Pine Bluff has a jug of real firewater. At least it started a fire.

The jug contained water. Just water. But Porter set it in the sun and it refracted the sun's rays in such a way that it burned two holes in Porter's hunting coat.

Sign of the times: The Fort Smith Times Record carried an announcement the other day that readers should avoid firing ranges at Ft. Chaffee. The post, closed several years, has been reactivated in the current military buildup.

El Dorado wrote the end to one of the most unusual crimes of the year when Willie Ward, a 60-year-old Negro, was committed to the State Hospital for treatment.

Ward was charged with stealing a three room house last June 21.

Jonesboro's Marshall Abel lost at least one claim to fame. He was edged out for first place in Jonesboro's new telephone book by Hoyt Abbott.

Emil Zvonik retained last place and the Jonesboro Sun speculated that it would be hard to displace him.

The Sun also noted that the Joneses are running a poor third to the Smiths (101 listings) and the Johnsons (73) in the new book. There are only Joneses listed.

In Jonesboro, yet!

Randy Tardy, news editor of KTHV in Little Rock, reports that a tad phoned the station the other day to ask when "Polident" would be on.

He referred, of course, to Palatin.

School Districts Seek More Millage

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Fifty-seven Arkansas school districts will seek millage increases and three others will propose millage decreases in the Dec. 2 school election.

The state Education Department said the remainder of the school districts will ask voters to retain their present millage rate.

Legally, the department noted, 18 mills is the minimum tax levy a school district can approve and remain eligible for state school aid. There is no millage ceiling.

The department said proposed millage reductions will be voted on at Greenway, Grady and Gosnell.

Most people, when they are involved in divorce, would just as soon keep the matter quiet.

So Joe McGee, editor of the Conway Log Cabin Democrat, was surprised when a man showed up and asked that the two lines on his divorce be run at the top of the column.

Seems the man was shedding a wife of 25 years, and apparently wanted the ladies to know he was available. Sure enough, he was back some weeks later asking that an item about his buying a marriage license be run at the top of the column.

Credit for Victory Goes to Coach Fry

By JIM BELL
Sports Editor of the Fort Smith Southwest American

Written for the Associated Press

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Arkansas assistant coach Hayden Fry must be credited with a big assist in the Razorbacks' key Southwest Conference victory over a talented Baylor team in Waco last Saturday night.

In fact, the Porkers' margin of victory, 23-13, could very well have been established last January when the red-headed Fry was hired away from Coach John Bridger's staff at Baylor.

At Baylor, Fry was the defensive backfield coach who tutored the present Bear backs in the art of pass defense.

It was three passes that got Arkansas its three touchdowns Saturday night, and one of them, a 32-yard toss from quarterback Billy Moore to halfback Lance Alworth, didn't jibe with the Hog's usual pattern of play.

It was second down on the Baylor 32 yard line and the Porkers had moved overland from their own 20. Suddenly, Moore dropped back (a rare maneuver by an Arkansas passer since the rout-out pass is employed usually) and nailed Alworth who was a full gallop at the Baylor five yard line, behind the Bear defensive secondary.

"Coach Fry put in the pass," Alworth said after the ball game. "He knew how the Baylor defense would be covering, so he had my route up the middle with and end taking my man away from me."

Coach Frank Broyles has praised the blocking by the Porker halfbacks during the past two games. This is a direct result of Fry's work this fall and last spring. Until this season, the Arkansas backs hadn't been blocking after carrying out their fakes— but currently, they are faking better and contributing important blocks afterward.

Folling the 16-0 Mississippi loss, Fry was a dejected individual. "I just don't know what happened," he said while looking over chaffs he had kept during the game. "I don't know for sure that it was our backfield that hurt our offense today but we'll find out next week."

It appears that the youthful coach has met the challenge and has groomed the Porkers' offense so that it is more consistent than at anytime during the past three seasons.

Bridgers said before the Arkansas game that Fry was the "equalizer" for the Razorbacks since Baylor was favored by six points. His knowledge obviously proved to be more than that.

3 Women Escape From E. Germany

BERLIN (AP) — Three elderly women from East Germany made a daring escape by automobile to West Berlin today, police reported.

It was one of the coolest escape plans reported during the two months since the Communists began building their wall around West Berlin, and was made by a 54-year-old woman doctor and two women relatives, aged 68 and 72.

Police said it happened like this: The women lived in a house near the border. One of them distracted the attention of border guards by talking to them. The other two got busy with wire cutters and cut a gap in the wire.

A short time later the three women emerged in an automobile and drove through the gap to the West.

FUNCTIONAL, TOO

'Rec' Room Has Style

This beautiful layout proves that a modern recreation room can be as stylish and attractive as any other room in the house. It has facilities and work space for various members of the family, and the handsome woodgrain divider provides privacy for those using the room. The hardboard paneling on the divider, as well as that on the walls, has a washable plastic surface that never needs refinishing. Called Marlite, it comes in easy-to-handle planks that can be installed over old walls or any solid backing.

THE STORY: James Lynch and Laura Meadows have hijacked the plane to Morocco. They force Mike Beecher to pilot it.

Chapter XVI
With Tangier behind them they headed out to sea. Lynch gave Beecher a heading on a southern course.

He settled back comfortably then and lit a cigarette. "Nothing to do for a couple of hours," he said. "Put her on automatic if you like."

"You're backing odds that would terrify any sane man. I can only assume they were even worse in England."

"Well, you're not British. There's the difference. You see, old man, it's quite uncomfortable being second rate in England. Being poor is quite all right. And being rich and first-rate, well that's pleasant. But being stuck in-between is not comfortable at all. And that was my jolly niche. After the war things seemed to look up for a bit. We were all heroes then."

Lynch smiled wistfully. "As a matter of fact, I never left England. I was a ranker in the RAF. Ground crew. But I'd got to navigation school by the time the war ended." He flicked the chart book with his finger. "That's where I picked this stuff up. At any rate, here was a grateful nation, eager to make heroes out of anyone."

Man Charged for Robberies

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The FBI announced today the arrest of Billy Gene Moore, 22, on a charge of unlawful flight to avoid prosecution at Turner, Oregon.

Agent in charge J. J. Casper said Moore is wanted for the burglary of a Turner service station last Aug. 15.

Casper said FBI agents and City Marshal Choice Usery of Tyrone arrested Moore near Marion. He is being held under $5,000 bond.

Older Workers

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Washington University received a $177,052 Ford Foundation grant Tuesday to finance studies in six states, including Arkansas, on public and private efforts in the placement of older workers.

who'd been called up. It seemed a shame to disappoint them. Not to borrow money from them, let them cash your checks, that sort of thing. I lived like a first-rater, for the first time in my life."

"Now you've killed a man. You'll be garroted if you're caught," Beecher shook his head.

"Well, there's more to it," Lynch said with a sigh. "I came on what seemed a good thing. A certain photograph in exchange for a good bit of cash. The girl was young and drank too much. Her family was filthy with money. But they chose to raise the bloodiest row you can imagine. Sent the police straightaway to my digs. And worse luck. I had the photograph and the negative in my wallet when I was pinched."

"Was Laura involved in the blackmailing?"

"Only in an advisory capacity. She's a clever girl."

"I know," Beecher said. "Tell me frankly, when we first met, did you take me for a proper, first rate chap?"

"Until you deliberately stepped on my golf ball," Beecher said.

"There! You see! I had to give the show away. I might have won without cheating, of course."

Fifty miles south of Goulamine Beecher saw streaks of dawn in the sky. The light was almost imperceptible, a hazy insubstantial glimmer against the darkness, seemingly without source or direction. But in a few minutes the sun was spreading along the horizon, and he could make out the features of hard dry land skimming below him.

Lynch was sitting forward, his eyes narrowing as he peered through the windshield. "I believe we've done it, old man," he said, in a soft, incredulous voice.

"Look there! About a degree or so to your left. Do you make out a layer of black rock?"

Beecher nodded. From this distance the expanse of black shale looked about the size of a playing card against the gray expanse of desert.

Lynch was grinning with relief. "We've done it, old chap. Pinched a plane as easily as copping an apple from a grocer's stall. Who'd believe that, eh?"

Beecher brought the plane down to within 50 feet of the skimming black shale. It looked smooth as ice. "Shall I land?"

"Yes, put her down."

Beecher landed smoothly and taxied to a stop.

Lynch stood up and stretched. "It's good to move about a bit. I'm stiff as a piece of old leather."

A truck by then had pulled up to a stop in front of the plane. It was a stout and powerful land-rover riding on wide, deeply grooved tires. There were a dozen jerry cans of water belted into racks along its sides, and six extra tires were strapped into a meal frame on top of the truck.

Beecher stood and looked out through the windshield of the cockpit. Don Willie was climbing from the driver's seat of the land rover. Bruno, his pilot, looking sleepy and irritable, jumped down from the other side and disappeared toward the tail of the plane.

Don Willie looked up and smiled quickly at Beecher.

In a moment or so Lynch appeared carrying a wooden crate in his arms. He hoisted it onto the tailgate of the truck and returned to the plane. Then Don Willie and Bruno came into view carrying crates.

Don Willie looked up and smiled here, Beecher realized, although he saw no plane in the crescent of horizon visible from the cockpit. He might have landed miles away. Bruno must have driven the landrover out from Goulamine to meet him.

TIPS FOR SAVING TIME THE EXECUTIVE

"My greatest time-saver is to do one thing at a time," says financier Bernard Baruch. "Few people do two jobs at once well—so stick to one task till it's finished."

When making dates for 1 p.m., movie producer Samuel Goldwyn always announces an unbreakable appointment for 2:30. Result: lunch-time business gets done fast!

A daily personal time-table is a must, according to Bart Wickstrum, Executive Vice President of General Time Corporation. "The best way to salvage minutes is to spend a few putting yourself on a schedule," advises the man whose "Big and Bobby Ben" clocks have helped keep America on time for 50 years!
